

Uneven development in global value chains

One day workshop – Amphitheatre MSH Paris Nord – November 16, 2017

PROGRAMME

Registration free but mandatory – e-mail to cdurand@ehess.fr

9h45: welcome coffee

10h00: outline

10:30-13:00 Overlapping perspectives on global value chains

Producing: A labour regimes perspective

Elena Baglioni and Liam Campling (Queen Mary, University of London)

Governing: A critical management perspective

Florence Palpacuer (Université de Montpellier – ISEM)

Upgrading/ downgrading: An economic perspective

Steven Knauss (CEPN, Université Paris 13 and CNRS)

Discussant: Peter Gibbon (Danish Institute for International Studies)

13h00 lunch

14:00-15:30 Emerging research

The financialisation-globalization nexus

Tristan Auvray (CEPN, Université Paris 13 and CNRS)

Discussant: Florence Palpacuer

Value, tax and global inequality chains

David Quentin (Queen Mary, University of London)

Discussant: Cedric Durand

Standards as power: the case of transatlantic trade negotiations

Benjamin Burbaumer (CEPN, Université Paris 13 and CNRS)

Discussant: Liam Campling

16h00-18h30 Policies and Politics

The monopolization of the intellectual forces of production

Cédric Durand (CEPN, Université Paris 13 and CNRS)

The limits of corporate social responsibility

Corinne Vercher (CEPN, Université Paris 13 and CNRS)

The trade-labour nexus

Adrian Smith (Queen Mary, University of London)

Discussant Peter Gibbon

20:00 dinner